Check List of Documents (if deceased died in Saudi Arabia)

- Copy of Death Certificate (issued by Saudi Health Ministry).
- Succession Certificate issued by concerned Family/Civil Judge attested by MOFA.
- Power of Attorney (attested by MOFA) in favor of person who receives the dues from the company in Saudi Arabia.
- Iqama Copy of deceased.
- Iqama Copy of person who receives dues from the employer.
- CNIC copies of all legal heirs of deceased.
- One Photo copy set of all documents

Note: All the documents are dependable on each other as the death certificate needs to be attested to verify and confirm the death of deceased, power of attorney needs to be attested in order to receive the dues of the deceased lying with his employer in Saudi Arabia and Succession Certificate is also required to be attested in order to determine the legal heirs of deceased, so in this case the following documents are required to complete the procedure.

Time Required: Between 3-7 Working Days.
