Info Cairo

Cairo is the largest city in Africa, is located on the Nile River 160 kilometers (100 miles) inland from the Mediterranean Sea and 135 kilometers (80 miles) west of the Red Sea. Cairo is the Capital of Egypt. Cairo is one of the most ancient cities of known human history. At the heart of Tahrir Square you find vast Egyptian Museum, a trove of antiquities including the Royal Mummies and gilded King Tutankhamun artifacts. Cairo also known as Masr by Egyptians as well as al-Qahirah or Umm al-Dunya ("the mother of the world"). Cairo the City of the Thousand Minarets is a splendid place to explore Egyptian history and culture. Cairo has an estimated population of 12 million in 2014, while metropolitan population of appx 22 million, which makes it the largest city in Africa and the Middle East, and the 15th largest metropolitan area on earth. Cairo was officially founded in AD 969, but its history is much longer than a more 1,000 years. In A. D. 969 Jawhar, the leader of an Islamic sect called the Fatimids, founded a new city near al-Fustat, initially naming it al-Mansuriyah (its name was later changed to al-Qahirah, or Cairo). When the Fatimids became the rulers of Egypt, founding a dynasty that lasted for two centuries, Cairo became their capital. Cairo's cultural legacy is evident in its rich and varied museum collections. The Egyptian Museum at Maydan Tahrir houses the city's premier collection of over 100,000 artifacts from nearly every period of Egyptian history. Most of its greatest buildings were constructed during this period.

Cairo has the oldest and largest film and music industries in the Arab world, as well as the world's second-oldest institution of higher headquarters in the city, the Arab League has had its headquarters in Cairo for most of its existence. The climate of Cairo is Deserted, with hot summers and mild winters, rain is rare, and dust storms can occur in the spring. Cairo is connected by highway with all other major cities in Egypt. The Desert Road links Cairo and Alexandria there are main roads connecting Cairo with Ismailiyyah and Luxor. In addition, there is the Red Sea Highway completed in the early 1990. Pyramids (Giza) situated almost 20 km from Cairo Down Town.
